

Free MacPilot

UNIX power Macintosh simplicity Scared of the terminal or cant be bothered to remember those commands to customize your system the way you want MacPilot is your digital saviour Easily enable and disable hidden features in Mac OS X optimize and repair your system and perform numerous routine maintenance operations with the click of a button Increase performance and perform maintenance Pro user or not you can now increase computer performance with only a few clicks of the mouse Optimize your network for broadband connectivity completely customize Apple File Sharing perform essential maintenance without having to remember mind boggling acronyms and much more However those are just a few of the many reasons why MacPilot is your choice over Cocktail TinkerTool and Onyx Unlock hidden features in Mac OS X Disable the translucent menubar in Leopard disable menu items for security disable icon caches set history limits erase recently used files prevent your dock from being modified turn off all system animations increase the speed at which windows resize change which format screenshots are taken in set a default name and location for screenshots disable a secondary processor disable the startup chime and even change the login window picture Over features We welcome you to put MacPilot to the test against our competitors Features stability and interface say it all but why dont you be the judge Download your free fifteen day limitless evaluation now

Get MacPilot now:

[sociallocker]

[/sociallocker]